

Lews Castle Stornoway

Stornoway is the largest town in the Western Isles and is the gateway to the Isle of Lewis. The photo above is of Lews Castle a Victorian mock castle that overlooks the harbour and is surrounded by beautiful woodland.

Above the harbour is Gallows Hill, the name is self explanatory. Below the visitors first view of Lewis from onboard the ferry. More photos of Stornoway here.

